About us.

Om engg technologies private limited., began operations in the year 1996, under the stewardship of its founder mr. V.a. Jayachandran and with team of motivated engineers. All are technocrats with vast experience who steadily built the company into a versatile engineering company which cater today to the automobile, aerospace, defence, appliances, consumer durables, electrical, electronics and telecommunication industries.

Om engg technologies private limited have today grown as a premier industrial company engaged in green energy products such as ‘sundaya’ solar home lighting systems, ‘sunna’ intelligent street lighting systems, solar power packs etc.

Om engg technologies private limited have core business verticals in industrial control panel manufacturing, modern cnc machine shop for domestic and export markets, providing warehousing facilities, transportation solutions, building and electrification of mobile towers and supply of bts equipment, operation and maintenance of equipment etc.

As a supporting industry, we always look forward towards opportunities and ways to support our customers with our manufacturing concepts and practical techniques employed to meet the ever increasing standards and demands set by our customers.

1234567