

General Engineering

Our product group covers the variety of industries field mainly in marine, pumps, valves, mining which also extends to power transmission, compressors, hydraulic and near all machinery & engineering applications.

Our stringent quality measures ensure that our products are free from defects and adhere to national & international standards.

Parts can be fully customized to fit the exact specifications as requested by customers, which according to requested material, chemical composition, hardness, tensile strength, yielding strength, impact, elongation, reduction, etc. on the drawings.