

Paving Blocks

Concrete Paving Blocks is among the most commonly used material for Driveways, Pathways, Foot paths, internal roads and parking areas.

Being manufactured in the most modern plant with the latest technology under controlled conditions, the products undergo rigorous test and inspection before being delivered to customers.

Paving Blocks are available in thickness of 60, 80 and 100mm with various designs and patterns Also, shot blasted, curled and sealant coated options available.