

Dairy Equipment

We are into the fabrication and machining of an assortment of dairy equipment. All our dairy products like vertical tank, milk storage tank, milk silo, are manufactured using quality raw materials that are quality assured. Salient features of the products include efficient performance, less maintenance and durability. We have the ability to customize the products, as per specific requirements of our clients.

Milk Storage Tank

Service Description:

We offer finest quality milk storage tank, which are widely used in the food industries that are engaged in the manufacture of dairy products. Our milk storage tanks are specially designed to ensure that the entire volume stays cold and fat is not separated from the milk. Manufactured from quality stainless steel, the vertical tank has features of low maintenance, superior resistance, easy to install, user friendly and high performance.

Milk Silo

Service Description:

Our company is engaged in the manufacturing of vertical milk silo's, which are manufactured from stainless steel. These silos are available in various shapes and sizes. We can do fabrication work for our range of milk silos, thus giving our clients satisfaction up to their needs.

Scrubber

Service Description:

Scrubbers are one of our most popular dairy equipments. It is widely demanded for its features of corrosion resistance, simple operation and low maintenance. We can customize the product, in accordance to the definite demands of our clients.

Pasteuriser

Service Description:

The product is a special type of scrape surface heat exchanger that are specially designed for pasteurizing different types of heat sensitive products such as mango pulps, papayas, and many more. The operation of pasturiser is dependent on the products' viscosity and processes requirements.