

Solvent Cement

Our Solvent cement is the most effective solution for joining PVC pipes, conduits and fittings. It is very fast and easy to use. In addition it has high joining strength and ensures watertight joints. It is available in specially designed eco-friendly tin containers.

Features

- High quality
- Reduced fumes and odour during installation
- Meet the required standards for solvent cement used for plastic pipe installation.
- Useful in piping applications like consumable water, turfs, water systems, pools and spas, fire assurance, conductor, and sewers.