

Core Drilling

Decades of experience in the production and application of core drill bit, rigs and motors give Fastcut the edge in the marketplace. As a result our products can be viewed as innovative solutions for large-scale projects while remaining cost-effective for everyday construction site use.

Fastcut core drills are especially suited for drilling reinforced or normal concrete. Can be operated on a drill rig or by hand. Fastcut core drill bits and drills are designed to work flawlessly.