

Industrial Sprockets

Our range of sprockets comprises MS, EN 8/9, CS and SS that are widely used in roller and conveyor chains. These conveyor sprockets are precision designed and constructed to meet the specific operational requirements of different power transmission & conveyor systems. Fabricated using superior grade metals, our conveyor sprockets reduce noise & ensure smooth operations. In addition, these are also known for maximum absorption of shock.

