

Intensive Dampener

Intensive dampener is an important machine for adding moisture to the grain kernels. It works in two folds. In one fold, it works as scourer for making the surface of grain rough to facilitate better penetration of water inside grain kernel and in second fold it allows regulated water flow to add with the stream of material.

