

Cream Separator

Mahavir Industries is one of the prominent Milk Cream Separator Manufacturers and Suppliers in India. Widely used in dairy farms for splitting raw milk into butter less form and thick creamy milk. Keeping the demand for the latest market trend and our clients' requirements, we are engaged in providing highly-standard and fully-featured Cream Separator Manufacturers in India.

In order to perform, our offered product works instantly without failure. These machines are used for cream separation from milk in the numbers of food industries including dairy farms, Milk processing units, Hotels, Restaurants, Confectionary, Hotels, and households. With the valuable support of talented professionals, we can be able to offer a range of high-quality Milk Cream Separator that efficiently extracts cream from milk. With the assistance of high-end techniques and ultra-advanced technology, our Cream Separator is assembled using the best grade basic components in state of art production infrastructure.