

Storage Vessels

Acme is well experienced in design, analysis and re-rating of storage tanks used in refineries, chemical plants, power plants, nuclear plants and other processing facilities. All storage tanks are manufactured as per API 650 code.

State of the art equipment is in use everywhere at Acme factory. Capabilities range from automatic welding machines capable of performing multiple welding processes to fully qualified and trained welders.