

Jaw Crusher

Jaw Crusher uses two blades in crushing process. A connecting rod hanging from a peculiar shaft sends out force through a pair of toggles at the bottom of the roll jaw. In such kind of mechanism, the movement is greatest which gives more force to work on hard materials. Jaw Crusher is efficient in handling high scrape at low cost of maintenance because of the less wear and tear being happening in the working of the mechanism set in the jaw crusher.

