

Duplex Strainer

Product Details

Process Connection
Screwed, Flanged

Valve Type
Bucket

Specialities
Rust Proof, High Tensile

Strainer Material
Mild Steel

Industry In Use
Water

Based in Chennai, Fluid Machine Control is a well-known Duplex Strainer Manufacturers that provides superior quality Duplex strainers to the customers at reasonable prices. Our Duplex strainers are best for the water, oil, gas, etc industry and we are highly appreciated for our product efficiency amongst our existing clientele.

Our Duplex strainers are available in two different types of process connection namely flanged and screwed. Our company also provides for special dimension Duplex strainers for customized products and these are also supplied with weld neck flange or Slip on the flange and also Butt weld connections. Our Duplex strainers are rust free and have high tensile strength for durability.

At the time of delivery of the product, we make sure that our products are damage-proof and safely reach our clients within the promised timeframe. Our company uses carton boxes for packaging of our superior quality Duplex strainers for secure delivery of consignment right at our client's doorstep.