

T-Strainer

Product Details

Process Connection

Screwed, Flanged

Specialities

High Tensile, High Quality, Durable

Strainer Material

Mild Steel

Established in 2016, Fluid Machine Control is a Chennai based company that offers the best range of T Strainers to customers at affordable prices. We are engaged in providing a huge range of fabricated T strainers with cylindrical baskets. Our company has gained the name of one of the best T strainer suppliers in the industry.

Our product T strainer is designed by using superior quality materials and modern technologies. Our products are remanufactured as per the industry norms. Our products are used in various industries. Our products are corrosion resistant, high tensile, durable and perfectly finished. Our products are examined on various parameters to ensure flawless delivery and also timely delivery.

Our products are composed of mild steel and polished are available in thickness of 10 to 15mm. They are used as a part of pipelines to safeguard pumps, valves, meters and steam traps, etc. Our products are weather-resistant, defect-free and also available in a compact size.