

Cube Test

Sample cubes of concrete are taken from every site and cured for 28 days . The respective cubes are tested using compressive testing machine to find the strength of concrete on 7th and 28th days respectively. The testing can also be done in the presence of customer at our in house laboratory. We provide evidence of cube test results to ensure compliance with the designers requirements.

