

Gantry Crane

Gantry Cranes are self-propelled cranes and are useful where overhead rails cannot be installed or the movement of load is required only in specific floor area out of the whole shop floor; railings for gantry cranes are installed on the floor itself. Gantry Cranes can be either single girder or double girder depending upon load being lifted and the usage.