

Flap Discs

Abrasive Flap Discs performs Grinding as well as Blending operation. Coated Abrasives Flap Discs perform well in general-purpose coarse grinding applications. It is the ideal product for working particularly difficult areas such as irregular edges, sharp corners and weld dressing along with good finishing requirements.

Recommended Applications

Heavy stock removal and weld blending – Final finishing of welded structures – Can be used in place of Depressed Center Wheels and Resin Fiber Discs – Metal fabrication – Stainless steel grinding