

Ball Mills

"H.K. Associates" Ball Mills is Making rotary screens also in different diameters, length and segments, driven through central shaft with crown & pinion gear. To prevent flying dust, covers may be provided as an option.

H.K. Associates Ball Mills are most suitable to grind even the hardest rock with uniform fineness upto 300 mesh with minimum wear & tear. For jerk free rotation the entire shell is balanced. Charging/ discharging door is designed to open or close easily.

However, for wet grinding and mixing light duty ball mills are also available. As an option, inner liners may be provided either of C.I., M.S. MN. Steel. ceramic or any other suitable material.