

About Triveni Equipments Pvt. Ltd

Our company Triveni Equipments Pvt. Ltd was established in 1985 and is primarily engaged in manufacturing and supplying wide range of industrial strainers and valves. Our capabilities and world-class quality standards have earned us the loyalty and admiration of our clients, and this has been a guiding factor in our success.

We are the leading manufacturer and supplier of valves and industrial strainers like butterfly valve, ball valve, gate valve, y-strainers, conical in-line strainer, basket strainer etc.

Our talented team members have in-depth industry knowledge and enable us to meet with the emerging client demands and thus offer complete satisfaction to our valued clients. We are able to perform successfully because of consistent effort, dedication and hard work by our team members. With the overwhelming client response, we have established a great rapport worldwide.

QUALITY POLICY / PROCESSES

All our products are manufactured in state-of-the-art technology to give better homogeneity and consistency. We manufacture products as per ISI and International standard. Our ability to produce tailor-made products with minimum quantity requirement is a great boon for our customers.

Due to quality consistency and competitiveness, all our products are considered as most reliable in India. More than two and half decades of experience in manufacturing modularizes is an added advantage.

OUR QUALITY ASSURANCE

Cultivated through sustained efforts, quality has been a vital aspect of our operations. From the selection of raw materials to designing, development & production and from packaging to shipping, a stringent quality control program is followed. This quality control mechanism ensures that quality is maintained at all times & in all processes. Our trained team of quality control personnel always takes proper care of the entire process.

All our products are manufactured in state-of-the-art technology as per ISI and international standards. Due to quality consistency and competitiveness, all our products are considered as most reliable in India. More than two and half decades of experience in manufacturing modularizes is an added advantage.

CLIENT SATISFACTION

We are a client-conscious organization and divert all our efforts on providing optimum satisfaction to the clients present in India as well as across the world. Our range of products is designed using superior quality raw material. With the overwhelming client response, we have established a great rapport worldwide.

Further to assure high end quality products, our industrious team closely monitors each stage of production right from sourcing of raw material to the final stage of shipment of products to the respective destinations. Owing to our ethical business practices and timely delivery of all the products, we have been highly appreciated from our clientele.

INFRASTRUCTURE FACILITIES

We have a world class state-of-the art manufacturing facility which is equipped with latest technology and modern equipments. With the help of our cutting edge technology we are able to manufacture superior quality range of products so as cater to successfully to varied requirement of our customers. Our unit spread over a sprawling area has a quality testing lab that is used to check raw materials and where the finished products are tested for their performance and long service life.

Our organization also encloses an in house design unit with CAD/CAM facility, for continuous enhancement of our models and designs. The entire unit is segregated in various sections and has been equipped with sophisticated machines.

Some of the machines installed are as follows:

- Lathe machines (Turning Centers)
- Drilling (Pillar Type)
- Hydraulic press
- Welding transformers
- Cutting
- Measuring instruments

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

We have earned a leading position for developing and introducing best products in the industry. Our modern research and development unit is equipped with sophisticated machinery and tools that are used to develop new products as per the industry requirements.

Our research and development division is manned by talented and dedicated R&D experts who have displayed proficiency in developing new products.

They are whole-heartedly engaged in innovating and adopting new techniques in our manufacturing process and produce better products as well. We conduct extensive research and development activities to remain at the forefront of the industry by developing innovative products. Our research and development department closely observes the latest developments in the international markets and designs products accordingly.

WAREHOUSING AND PACKAGING

Our team of well trained experts having years of experience takes utmost care of our warehouse. The warehouse of our company is moisture-free and properly ventilated. The warehouse is well connected with roads, stations and ports, therefore it helps us in easy and fast delivery of our range of products.

The consignments are packed as per the requirements of our clients. Our range of products are packed using quality packaging material in order to ensure its safe and secure delivery at client's end within the committed time frame.