

About Us

Company Profile

Orient Filters established in 2005 has become a prominent Manufacturer of filter products. We are ISO 9001:2008 certified manufacturing company well known in the market. Our products are demanded by the customers for its best features. We also import leading filter brands from countries like UK, USA, China, Taiwan, Malaysia and Europe. Orient Filters design and manufacture different types of water filters for domestic and industrial purposes. We manufacture different types of water filters that include SS Filters, PP Filters, Carbon Filters, Domestic RO unit etc. We also deal with SS Pleated Filters, PP Pleated Filters and oil filters.

Company Philosophy

The philosophy of the company is to successfully develop, produce and market high quality water treatment products across the globe, which ensures in the development of healthy environment thereby giving better quality of life. Aiming towards attainment of our goal, our endeavors are directed towards offering state-of-the-art water technology to the country but all over the world.

Driven by our quality centric approach and the aim to offer excellent water purifiers and other similar products, we follow an integrated approach towards assuring the quality. In this regard we have formulated a quality objective, which keeps us geared to meet the requirements of qualitative products.

Quality Policy

Having Quality as important factor, we are committed to offer premium quality to our customers. We have professional team for Design, manufacture and delivery of our products. Our products are produced with raw materials that are from reliable source who provide quality raw materials. Our every business process is operated under the supervision of experienced personnel. We follow a strict quality checks to ensure optimum performance and quality of our products. Orient Filters has formulated certain quality objectives and abide by these objectives. They are:

- Substantial reduction in costs
- Higher customer satisfaction
- Extensive testing of finished products
- Maintaining conducive working environment
- Maintaining timely dispatches
- Application of advanced technology

Vision and Mission

Orient Filters is established with an aim to sustain organizational excellence with outstanding technical skills and innovative efforts. We do our best to help people be healthy offering superior quality water filter products and have our product in every home in the country.

Our mission is to gain maximum satisfaction of our customers and timely delivery of products. Our employees are the backbone of our company who strive for the growth and success of the company. Our team is always motivated to provide quality products to our esteemed customers.