We seek to provide innovative metal forging solution to customers from various industries. And thanks to our progressive attitude, we have conquered markets that didn't even exist when we started our business over 25 years ago.

Industries we cater to:

AUTOMOBILES

Supplier to the auto industry from inception, Anil Metal has created an unparalleled reputation with the auto manufacturers. Anil Metal supplies various types of forgings made through the closed die and upset forging process and in many different conditions starting from forging to sub assemblies.

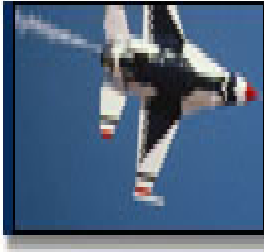

FARM EQUIPMENT

With modernization of the most populous business in India, Farming; Anil Metal has earned a reputation of supplying quality forgings with innovative production methods to lower the cost of manufacturing.

RAILWAY & TRAMWAY

Anil Metal, since many years, has been a large supplier of seamless forging and closed die critical forging to the largest undertaking in the world, The Indian Railways. The quality and schedule adherence has allowed Anil Metal to export these railway components to many different countries as well.

DEFENSE

The Indian defense has been homogenizing components at an ever-accelerating pace. While the process of trials is long but crucial, only the companies with superior knowledge sheer dedication will have the ability to supply critical forgings. Anil Metal has proved itself to be one of those few.

AEROSPACE

With India's dominance increasing in the aerospace industry, the aerospace industry in India is continuously looking at extremely high quality component manufacturers. It means both, the ability to manufacture with extreme precision and also able to test the resultant component. Anil Metal has been a noted supplier to the aerospace industry.

PIPING RELATED INDUSTRY & OIL EXPLORATION

Anil Metal has been manufacturing pipe fittings and flanges for many years. The range Anil Metal is able to offer is complete from the smallest to the largest. With such a diverse selection and a reputed name all over the world, Anil Metal offers both comfort of one supplier for all requirements and reputation, which makes it easily acceptable.

WIND ENERGY

Supplying to the wind energy industry has allowed Anil Metal to add a completely new industry segment to its portfolio. Having supplied to some of the industry leaders, Anil Metal has created its name in this industry in a very short span of time.

VALVE INDUSTRY

Anil Metal supplies valve bodies from small sizes to considerably large forgings to one of the largest manufacturer of forged valves in the world. Again this was possible only with credibility and experience.

GENERAL ENGINEERING

Over the years many companies have opted Anil Metal to have their custom forgings made. Starting from forged components used in development of different new equipment to forged components used in large-scale special purpose equipment have been successfully developed and delivered.
