

About us

Parasuram group is a reputed enterprise offering various industrial products like boiler and chimney, water tube steam boiler etc. The company has ably placed itself among the pressure vessel manufacturers since its inception in 1972. Mr. P. Parthasarathy, the ceo of the company is a highly experienced person in this field. Based at ponda, goa, we have achieved the recognition among the national level suppliers of industrial products. P.parthasarathy & co is ibr approved contractor in tamilnadu, goa, kerala, andhra.

Resources & infrastructure

we have hired some qualified professionals who have better understanding of all the dynamics in the industry. In line with the sophistication, we have brought about the latest machineries and testing equipments for the production of superior quality products.

Network

we are supported by an efficient network throughout the system. We have been supplying the products all over india. We have successfully maintained a brilliant track record of timely delivery in all circumstances throughout our career.

Warehouses

we have huge warehouses to hold massive stock of the products. To cater to the different requirements of different in different industries, we offer a wide range of products with different specifications. The warehouses are well-furnished and well-maintained so the any kind of damage during the storage period can be avoided.