About Us

AIR SYSTEMS' is one of the Prime manufacturer of Electrostatic Precipitators and parts for ESP of international repute including a wide range of mechanical spares for precipitators, whether they are OEM parts or customized products.

We are committed to quality, value and professional service, meeting our customer's immediate and long-term needs. Technological expertise coupled with high ethical business standards contribute to deliver the best quality product at very economical price.

We provide competitive pricing position but we do not sacrifice quality or service for the sake of price. Our measure of success is to provide our customers with the highest quality at the lowest possible price. We extend expert technological service, prompt delivery from our large inventory to minimize unnecessary downtime. We are a global price leaders in replacement spares for Electrostatic Precipitators of well-known makes.

We work in partnership with our customers, with open and honest interaction. We have a long term commitment to quality, backed by our guarantee of proper fit, performance and customer satisfaction. We utilize our decades of experience to engineer efficient, cost competitive equipment and after market services to completely satisfy our customers needs.

We serve a wide spectrum of Industries

Coal fired stations

Power

Cement

Pulp and Papers

Steel

Waste to energy

Copper smelting Industries

Zinc smelters