

About us

Inspired innovation, entrepreneurial leadership, high professionalism, zero defect products has made sudarshan a company to be reckoned with in south india. The company's state – of – the – art manufacturing plant incorporates the latest process technologies and is designed for production flexibility to meet varied customer needs. We provide tailored solutions to our customers.

The sudarshan team is highly committed to their work with immense interest in giving out products of the highest quality standards. With innovative ideas and cost effective design, sudarshan ensures customers reliable product performance.

Sudarshan offers range of high quality components and systems often customized for different applications in hydraulics. The sudarshan team helps customer enhance system efficiencies and operating margins by reducing complexities and improving machine performance.

we offer hydraulics to serve the needs of :

Machine tool industry

service station equipments die casting, plastic and rubber processing industry material handling

mobile equipment

construction machinery

steel plants

power plants

agricultural machinery

presses and shearing machines