Wyatt Resources, Inc. Announces the Certification of Douglas Buras as a Certified Welding Inspector by the American Welding Society

HOUSTON, TX, September, 2010

Wyatt Resources, Inc. is proud to announce that Doug Buras has received certification by the American Welding Society as a Certified Welding Inspector. With more than twenty years industry experience, Doug has worked for Wyatt Resources for more than eight years, holding positions across multiple departments within the organization, from Shipping & Receiving, to Fabrication Supervision, to Quality Control.

Becoming a Certified Welding Inspector requires many years of practical work experience in a welding-related industry, in addition to satisfactorily passing a multi-part examination validating one's ability to perform weld inspections and interpret results ensuring the work inspected conforms to the requirements of applicable codes and standards.

"Adding another CWI to assist with overseeing fabrication will really help continue our ever increasing focus on providing quality products and strictly adhering to various industry code requirements, further setting our company apart from our competitors," Brian Cavin, Quality Assurance and Control Manager, said.

Wyatt Resources currently employs two full-time Certified Welding Inspectors.

Wyatt Resources prides itself in delivering high quality products at a fair price to its customers in an atmosphere where its employees can prosper and have a sense of belonging to a successful organization. Named by the Houston Business Journal as a Top 50 Fastest-Growing Woman-Owned Business, Wyatt Resources' success starts with its people and thrives on the relationships the company creates and maintains with its customers.

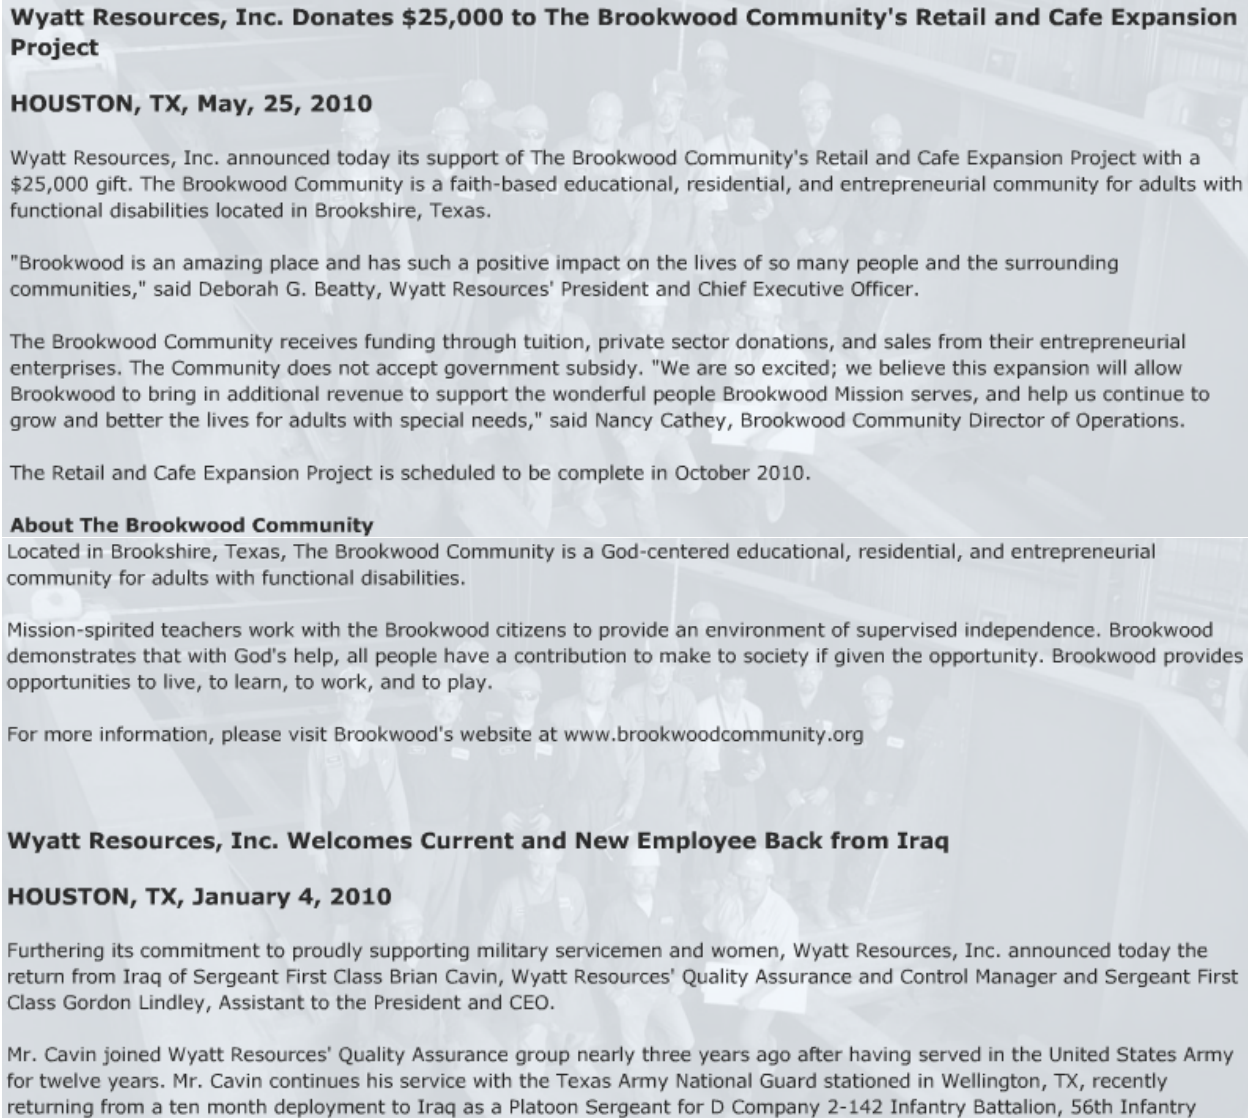

Wyatt Resources proudly supports U.S. servicemen and women and is recognized by both the U.S. Army and The National Guard and Reserves as a patriotic employer.

Over the years Wyatt Resources' name, facilities and trucks have changed, however the approach to quality and customer satisfaction has remained the same.

24-Hour Company Owned Trucking Fleet

For some companies, product delivery can prove arduous and a project all in itself. Wyatt Resources' dedicated trucking fleet offers customers lower overall shipping costs and greater flexibility for product pick-up and delivery. Wyatt Resources can respond to the time-critical needs of its customers in the event of an emergency, fabricating, expediting and delivering products around the clock.
